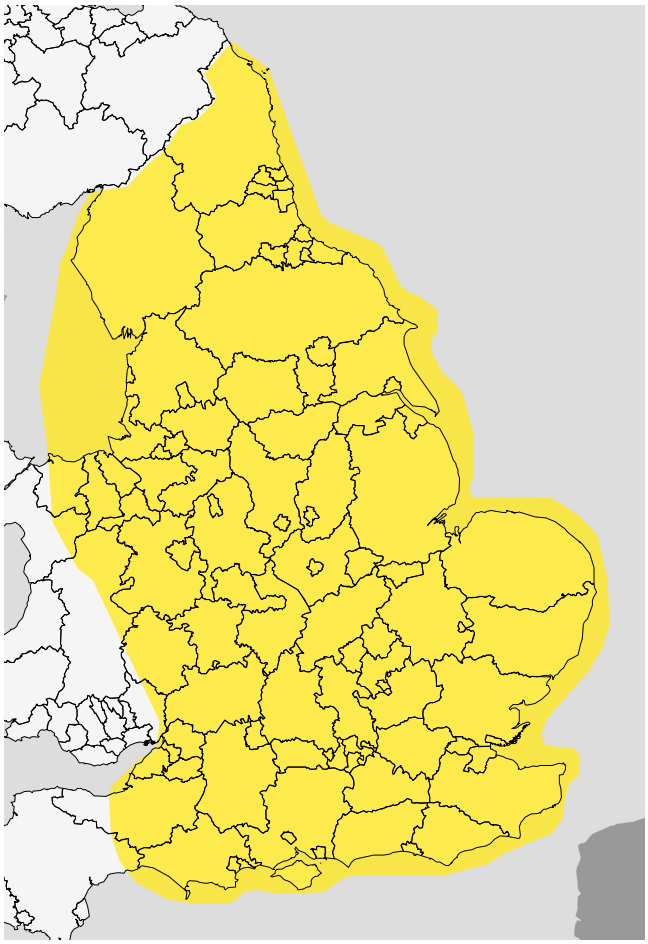
Yellow warning
Thunderstorm

Between
00:00 Mon 24 Jun 2019 and
23:59 Mon 24 Jun 2019



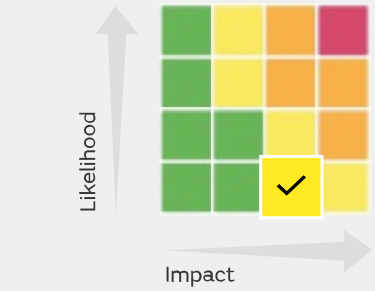
Heavy rain and thunderstorms may lead to flooding and disruption to travel.

What to expect

- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded quickly, with damage to some buildings from floodwater, lightning strikes, hail or strong winds
- There is a small chance of fast flowing or deep floodwater causing danger to life
- Where flooding or lightning strikes occur, there is a chance of delays and some cancellations to train and bus services
- Spray and sudden flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- There is a slight chance that power cuts could occur and other services to some homes and businesses could be lost

Further details

Heavy thundery rain is expected to move northwards across Wales, central and northern England through Monday morning, clearing to the north around midday. Isolated heavy thunderstorms may then develop across much of England and also parts of Wales during the afternoon. Further heavy thundery rain may then arrive across southern parts of England in the evening. In areas affected by the thundery rain 15-30mm may fall widely, with peaks of 50mm possible across parts of northern England. In areas affected by isolated heavy thunderstorms, very locally in excess of 40mm may fall in an hour.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts
